1:00 – 2:00 Safety & Lodge Development - Accident Prevention Mike Campbell..... Design

- Our lodges are our homes, and our members are our family. Ensuring the safety of both is essential. Come learn how regular inspections provide opportunities to learn about your building needs, create future planning, and enhance your stewardship of the lodge ensuring maintained and well-founded lodges for future generations.

1:00 – 2:00 Cyber-Assistants and the Virtual Home Page – Online Presence Arnold Ross Bronze/Silver

- Focus on a hands-on presentation on how to do things and who can do them – encourage CLMS Cyber-Assistants to attend and bring your laptop with hotspot to get the most out of this session. Time will be spent on the Online Presence Contest scoring and who will be moved forward into the Grand Lodge Website contest.

1:00 – 2:00 All American Lodge Contest – Lodge Activities Tasha McMullin Pine/Oak

- This session builds on the All-American Lodge assignment from spring officer training. We will actively work on each lodge putting information into the sheet and go through what activities lead to points and where they can go on the form. We will cover dates of events and activities available (e.g. Ritual) to help your community Discover the Elks and to drive each lodge to higher levels of performance. We will have a discussion sharing easy things a lodge can do to increase lodge engagement & pride, while increasing points for the contest.

2:10 – 3:10 Therapy Program 101 – Therapy Action Committee Bronze/Silver

- Down to the Basics seminar about our impressive and expansive State Major Project. Every wonder how many therapists help how many families each year? Curious about the program’s budget, where its funding comes from and what it takes to be a therapist in the program? Want the ability to explain the program to your fellow members and friends? This is the seminar for you! Put on by the support and promotional committee of Therapy Program for Children so you hear firsthand from those who know the most and are the most excited about the program.
